Microsoft Agent Framework is a multi-language toolkit for building, orchestrating, and deploying AI agents across .NET and Python. Go from simple chat bots to complex multi-agent workflows with built-in safety and observability.